At TPM Life Insurance Company, we understand the level of trust you have placed with us to protect your personal information. This notice explains how we protect your privacy and treat your personal information. This notice applies to current and former customers. “Personal information” here means anything we know about you personally.

Protecting Your Information

We take important steps to protect your personal information. We treat it as confidential and tell our employees to protect it as if it were their own information. We limit access to those who need it to perform their jobs. Our outside service providers must also protect your information, and use it only to meet our business needs. We also take steps to protect our systems from unauthorized access. We comply with all laws that apply to us.

Collecting Your Information

We typically collect your name, address, age, and other relevant information. For example, we may ask about you:

- Finances
- Creditworthiness
- Employment
- Health

We may also collect information about any business you have with us, our affiliates, or other companies. These affiliates have implemented privacy policies and procedures that comply with applicable federal and state law. In the future, we may also have affiliates in other businesses.

How We Get Your Information

We get your personal information mostly from you. We may also use outside sources to help ensure our records are correct and complete. These sources may include consumer reporting agencies, employers, other financial institutions, adult relatives, and others. These sources may give us reports or share what they know with others. We don't control the accuracy of information outside sources give us. If you want to make any changes to information we receive from others about you, you must contact those sources.

Using Your Information

We collect your personal information to help us decide if you're eligible for our products or services. We may also need it to verify identities to help deter fraud, money laundering, or other crimes. How we use this information depends on what products and services you have or want from us. It also depends on what laws apply to those products and services. For example, we may also use your information to:

- Administer your products and services
- Process claims and other transactions
- Perform business research
- Confirm or correct your information
- Market new products to you
- Help us run our business
- Comply with applicable laws

Sharing Your Information with Others

We may share your personal information, with your consent, or as permitted or required by law. Examples of the disclosures which we are permitted by law to make include: disclosures necessary to service or administer an insurance product that you requested or authorized, disclosures made with your consent or at your direction, disclosures made to your legal representative, disclosures made in response to a subpoena or an inquiry from an insurance or other regulatory authority, disclosures made to comply with federal, state or local laws and to protect against fraud.

Other reasons we may share your information include:

- Doing what a court, law enforcement, or government agency requires us to do (for example, complying with search warrants or subpoenas)
- Telling another company what we know about you if we are selling or merging any part of our business
- Giving information to a governmental agency so it can decide if you are eligible for public benefits
- Giving your information to someone with a legal interest in your assets (for example, creditor with a lien on your account)
- Those listed in our “Using Your Information” section above

Additionally, your representative may change brokerage firms, and may disclose your personal information to a new firm.

Accessing and Correcting Your Information

You may ask us for a copy of the personal information we have about you. Generally, we will provide it as long as it is reasonably retrievable and within our control. You must make your request in writing listing the account or policy numbers with the information you want to access. For legal reasons, we may not show you anything we learned as part of a claim or lawsuit, unless required by law.

If you tell us that what we know about you is incorrect, we will review it. If we agree, we will update our records. Otherwise, you may dispute our findings in writing, and we will include your statement whenever we give your disputed information to anyone outside Monitor Life.
